

Change of Name or Address

Students who change their residence or mailing address are expected to notify the Student Services Office of this change immediately. Any communication from the college mailed to the name and address on record is considered to have been properly delivered.