

Internship

Class

SCWK 2387

Practical, general workplace training supported by an individualized learning plan developed by the employer, college, and student. This course is the capstone for students pursuing the associate degree in Human Service Provider.

Student Conduct

Weatherford College has the responsibility and authority to formulate and enforce rules of student conduct that are appropriate and necessary to further the educational goals of the College and its students. Students who enroll must accept responsibility for their behavior and for their ultimate success in higher education. To create a positive climate for learning, Weatherford College expects all students to abide by a Code of Student Behavior. To summarize: Students must maintain high standards of scholastic honesty. Violations of the Code of Student Behavior include but are not limited to cheating on tests or assignments, plagiarism, and collusion; violence or threats of violence; loud or abusive language; and failure to comply with the direction of College officials and instructors. Students are expected to display professional behavior at all times while onsite at the intern site as well as in all communications with the practicum site supervisor and the course instructor. Violation of program or college code of conduct can result in student's removal from the intern site, course, and under extreme cases the Human Service Provider program or Weatherford College.

Course Learning Objectives

- I. As outlined in the learning plan, apply the theory, concepts, and skills involving specialized materials, tools, equipment, procedures, regulations, laws, and interactions within and among political, economic, environmental, social, and legal systems associated with the occupation and the business/industry and will demonstrate legal and ethical behavior, safety practices, interpersonal and teamwork skills, and appropriate written and verbal communication skills using the terminology of the occupation and the business/industry.
- II. Demonstrate the ability to engage clients in an appropriate working relationship.
- III. Identifying issues, problems, needs, resources, and assets
- IV. Learning the importance of collecting and assessing information
- V. Planning for service delivery
- VI. Using communication skills, supervision, and consultation
- VII. Applying empirical knowledge and technological advances
- VIII. Evaluating outcomes and practice effectiveness
- IX. Link people with systems that provide them with resources, services and opportunities

Disabilities

ADA Statement:

Any student with a documented disability (e.g. learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) may contact the Office on the Weatherford College Weatherford Campus to request reasonable accommodations. Phone: 817-598-6350
Office Location: Office Number 118 in the Student Services Building, upper floor. Physical Address: Weatherford College 225 College Park Drive Weatherford, TX.

Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity is fundamental to the educational mission of Weatherford College, and the College expects its students to maintain high standards of personal and scholarly conduct. Academic dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials including unauthorized use of Generative AI. Departments may adopt discipline specific guidelines on Generative AI usage approved by the instructional dean. Any student who is demonstrated to have engaged in any of these activities will be subject to immediate disciplinary action in accordance with institutional procedures.