

MHSM 3311 : Health Care Information Technology

This course introduces the different types of information maintained by health care organizations, commonly used health care software systems, robotics and automation interfaces, basic health care information security system standards, privacy laws and record archival.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0

Clinical Hours 0