

Free Speech

Weatherford College supports freedom of speech in those areas of the College in which the activity does not interfere with conducting of classes or the operations of the institution.