

CDEC 1359 : Children with Special Needs

A survey of information regarding children with special needs including possible causes and characteristics of exceptionalities, intervention strategies, available resources, referral processes, and the advocacy role and legislative issues. Passage of a background check is required for this course. Three hours lecture per week. Offered spring only.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0

Clinical Hours 0

CIP

19.0709