ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICY STATEMENT

A student shall be prohibited from using or being under the influence of intoxicating beverages in classroom buildings, laboratories, auditoriums, library buildings, museums, faculty and administrative offices, intercollegiate and intramural athletic facilities, and all other public campus areas. State law shall be strictly enforced at all times on all property controlled by the College District in regard to the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

No student shall possess, use, transmit, or attempt to possess, use, or transmit, or be under the influence of, any controlled substance, abusable inhalant, performance-enhancing drug, designer drug or any other intoxicant behavior-altering drug on College District premises or off premises at a College District-sponsored activity, function, or event.

The transmittal, sale, or attempted sale of what is represented to be any of the above-listed substances shall also be prohibited under the policy.

A student who uses a drug authorized by a licensed physician through a prescription specifically for that student's use shall not be considered to have violated this rule.

APPEALS (DUE PROCESS)

Weatherford College recognizes the importance of providing an opportunity for students to appeal the decisions made by college administrators, committees, and faculty and staff. Particular care is taken to provide safeguards for students if any action significantly alters their status at the College. In cases in which the accused student disputes the facts and/or penalties upon which the findings were based, an appeals committee shall hear such charges. The appeals committee shall be impartial and shall be designated by the Assistant Vice President of Student Services. The appeals committee shall preside over a fair hearing for the student and holds the authority to affirm, modify, remand, or reverse sanctions. The student and the College may be represented by counsel during the appeals. Weatherford College has one standing appeal committee.

The Student Appeals Committee will convene for a student disputing the facts and/or sanctions in the following circumstances:

- Violations of the Student Code of Conduct
- Violations of program-specific rules and regulations
- Non-Academic Success resulting in a delay of education

All students appearing before the Student Appeals Committee shall be informed of their due process rights. The procedural processes are listed in the student handbook. Students may request an appeal in the Office of Student Services.

Students may petition the College President in writing to review the Student Appeals Committee decision, within ten business days of receiving notice of the committee's decision. The College President will follow the procedures set forth in the College Policy. If the College President affirmed or modified the decision of the appeals committee or if the time for a response has expired, the student may appeal the decision to the Board in writing.

BULLYING

Bullying of a student may include hazing, threats, taunting, teasing, confinement, assault, demands for money, destruction of property, theft of valued possessions, name-calling, rumor spreading, and/or ostracism, all of which are prohibited activities at Weatherford College and college-sponsored events. Bullying can occur in written or verbal expression, expression through electronic means, or physical conduct.

Any student who believes that he or she has experienced prohibited conduct or believes that another student has experienced prohibited conduct should immediately report the alleged acts to an instructor, counselor, administrator, or another college employee who shall notify the Executive Dean of Student Services. A report may be made orally or in writing.

COMPLAINTS

Weatherford College encourages students to discuss their concerns and complaints through informal conferences with the appropriate instructor or another campus administrator. Concerns should be expressed as soon as possible to allow early resolution at the lowest possible administrative level.

If an informal conference regarding a complaint fails to reach an acceptable outcome for the student, the student may initiate the formal complaint process by filing a written complaint form. The student complaint form and procedures can be found here. Completed forms should be directed to the Executive Dean of Student Services. The Executive Dean will then forward to the appropriate administrator who can address the concern. If the student did not receive the relief requested, the student may request a conference to the next level of administration by following the student complaint policy. When addressing a student complaint, the college will follow the institution's student complaint policy, unless the complaint is regarding discrimination, harassment, retaliation, disciplinary decisions, or commissioned peace officers employed by the college. These alleged grievances are adjudicated through separate policies and have varying due process procedures.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Disciplinary action may originate with the Executive Dean of Student Services or designee or in other units of the College District, which may initially deal with the alleged misconduct. A faculty member, staff member, or student shall report any student violation that is not resolvable through an informal process if he or she believes that disciplinary action may be warranted. Any such referral(s) to the Executive Dean of Student Services shall be in writing and shall be signed by the college official making the referral.

The Executive Dean of Enrollment Management or designee may conduct an investigation to determine if the charges have merit and/or if they can be disposed of administratively by mutual consent of the student(s) and/or the college official who referred the matter. After the initial investigation, the Executive Dean of Enrollment Management or designee may issue one or more of the following:

1. Take no action.
2. Take administrative action to counsel, advise, or admonish the student.
3. Forward the grievance to an appropriate administrator/committee
4. Take disciplinary action against the offending student.

The discipline of students at Weatherford College is, in all but the case of expulsion, a part of the education process. Disciplining students is intended to be instructional and help students ultimately discipline themselves. A student shall be subject to discipline for violation of College policies and procedures, including the rules outlining expectations for student conduct (see Student Handbook). If a student commits an infraction or engages in misconduct, the college may impose penalties outlined in the Student Discipline Policy.

The disciplinary record shall be maintained permanently in the event that a student is expelled or subject to an extended suspension. In all other cases, the disciplinary record shall be maintained in accordance with the College's record retention schedule and kept separate from the student's academic record.
